Just Look What They've Cooked Up For You Now At Belle Glade's Annual P.T.A. Carnival

This year's annual Belle Glade PTA Carnival gets a face-lifting in its expanded quarters on the high school athletic field north of the gymnasium. The gates swing open to the delight of a multitude of youngsters Saturday, Oct. 31 at 7 p. m. immediately following the traditional costume parade at Memorial Field, according to Urban Felsing, general chairman of this year's carnival.

More than 20 booths of activities in addition to a host of kiddies rides and other special features promise to make this the best year yet in Halloween entertainment.

Parade

Categories of the parade will be assembled at the east end of the football field no later than 5:45 p. m. for the six o'clock starting time. The 45-minute pageant will feature a parade of the 1960 cars and farm equipment from local dealers.

This year judging will be on originality only with a first, second, third and honorable mention award for each of the 10 groups with a silver dollar as top prize in each group. R. W. Lanier, formre Belle Glade mayor, will announce the event.

Groups include the band, junior-senior high, grades one through six and two pre-school groups, one to three years and four and five-year-olds. Mrs. Guy Wood in charge.

Children and Parking

They've solved the problem of what to do with the toddlers this year. Girl Scouts will operate a baby sitting service throughout the carnival.

At the request of the carnival committee, the BGHS Future Farmers chapter will supervise a parking lot north of the athletic field and watch your car against pranksters for 25 cents. If your car's messed up, the FFA will wash your car FREE!

Help Needed

Friday afternoon, Saturday morning and afternoon the committee needs workers at the athletic field to assist in the setting up of booths and other equipment. Chairman Felsing urged all able bodied men and women to lend a hand in this vital part of the carnival.

What To Do

For more than two hours, the kiddies can jump, run, eat, ride and try for prizes ranging through free meals, haircuts, and free gasoline for mom and pop to trinkets, doo-dads and gadgets. If all the goings-on get the best of you, Troop 621 and 622 of the Boy Scouts will operate a first aid and refreshment area.

A stroll down the midway will bring to your eyes the Pick-pocket Men, Dr. J. Leighton Scott, Jim Finan, Clarence Aspey, Wilbur Winterrowd, Willis Warren, Wayne Fortenberry, Harold Zumpf and O. G. McWhorter. Pick a pocket, win a prize!

Don't Stop Now

Tickets for the sheebang are ten cents each and you can eat, ride and play for one, two or three tickets at a time. Special rides include the pony cart, horse rides and tractor and wagon rides with more, pro-

Something To Think About . . .

Last Thursday there were more than eighty automobiles on the front and east side of the Belle Glade High School; approximately 65 of these belonged to students in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades — there are approximately 265 students in those grades. That spells affluence, and a lot of deferred payments!

Recently tests were held at the high school followed by bemoaning and indignation on the part of parents about the grades. We've heard parents declare that in one class of 31, there were 2 A's, 2 B's and 27 D's.

Some group of researchers has come up with the statement that over a given number of high schools used in the research nearly 90% of those who failed drove automobiles and of the A's and B's less than 10% did drive automobiles!

There are, it is reliably reported, high school students under 16 driving automobiles to school, and after school.

Taking driver training is urged on all 14 year-olds in school who are eligible. This gives the youngsters two years to banter the parents, before sixteen, to be allowed to drive the family car before, during and after school!

Facts, parents — just plain facts! Is there any connection between under-age kids driving automobiles and the D's and F's they receive in tests?

Do you want your kids to walk home A's and B's, or drive home C's, D's and F's?

Reapportionment — What Is It?

(Editor's Note) This week The Herald presents the second and final article of the controversial reapportionment amendment to the Florida Constitution up for a referendum vote Nov. 3. The articles have been written by Belle Glade's State Representative Emmett S. Roberts, who tells some of the background of the controversy and suggests what to do about it.

By Emmett S. Roberts
State Representative

Next Tuesday, Nov. 3, you will vote on an amendment to the Florida Constitution redistricting the representatives of the State Legislature. It is important that you understand what the amendment does.

1. Six additional seats are added to the present 38 Senatorial Districts making a total of 44. The seats will go for the most part to fast-growing middle-sized counties, four of which are in south Florida and two in west Florida. Constitutional provisions prevent a county from having more than one senator.

2. Eight additional seats are added to the present 95 in the House of Representatives making a total of 103. These seats will go to the populous counties with Dade getting two and Duval, Hillsborough, Orange, Palm Beach, Escambia and Broward getting one additional representative.

3. This amendment gives Palm Beach County one additional member of the House of Representatives making our delegation have a total of three members of the House and one senator.

History

Briefly, let me give you a little history of reapportionment in our state. First, no state in the United States has what is generally referred to as fair reapportionment. Percentages range all the way from 9 percent to 43 percent. In your older states, and particularly in the north where population is more equally distributed statewide, your percentage of representation to population is higher.

Throughout the history of our

More Business Expansion Observed
More Families Coming To Buy Here

More businesses houses and more families into the Belle Glade area was the promise of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce in its latest issue of "Chamber Chatter," a newsletter distributed to members and other interested parties in this area.

"The opening of the Diana Shops on Oct. 29 is another step up in Belle Glade's business expansion ladder," writes Executive Secretary L. L. Price. "Also soon to open will be a new Texaco Service Station on N. Main St. Store fronts on Avenue A having some facelifting done are the two Mulkey stores formerly occupied by Daddy Dick's and Mather Furniture, and just across from them a whole row of stores are sporting new fronts. We must say that Avenue A is beginning to look pretty sharp.

"You also want to look out for another big store opening soon," the Chatter said. This referred to the remainder of the shopping center building at Ave. A and N. W. 2nd St. Price says he knows what's coming; however, he's been sworn to secrecy.

More Families

Since The Herald's Oct. 18 report, 11 new families have moved here, and those families represent 34 places at the tables. Quite a few others are also coming in which don't check with the chamber.

Three Questions On Nov. 3 Voting

Voters in Palm Beach County face a three-part voting problem Nov. 3 to decide a reapportionment amendment to the State Constitution, elect three school trustees and approve a school tax millage.

Every registered voter is eligible for the first two phases of the vote; however, only personal property or real estate taxpayers are eligible for the school millage decisions.

The reapportionment question is explained in this week's article, "Reapportionment — What Is It?" on this page

Rams Hungry For Victory Friday

Looking for their second win of the 1959 season, Belle Glade High School's Golden Rams visit Okeechobee Friday night for a game that isn't apt to be a push-over, according to Head Coach Jim Maynor.

Seacrest and Clewiston beat the Brahmans and they are the only common foe the Rams and Okeechobee have faced so far this year. The north-lakers fell 40-13 to Pahokee last week and Clewiston tripped them in a season opener 25-13.

The Rams will start the game without first-string Fullback Claude Robertson and he may not see any action due to an injury. Tim Bass will fill the slot offensively with Clarence Throop playing defensive linebacker.

Injured John Chamblee and Gary Norman should be in good shape for this contest. While Okeechobee has a lopsided lost column this year, they've demonstrated some of the ruggedness of the creature from whom they took their nick-

BGHS Alumni Plan Eventful Evening For Homecoming

Extensive plans are being made for Belle Glade High School's Homecoming celebration to be held this year in conjunction with the Pompano High School football game Nov. 13 at Memorial Field.

According to Roger Cunningham, newly-elected chairman of the Belle Glade High alumni group, this year's celebration will feature a float parade, half-time ceremony and dance after the game as well as social meetings of former classmates.

At a Monday night meeting of school officials and alumni members, it was decided to encourage class reunions for alumni to return to their school and enjoy the fellowship and celebrations annually. The 10-year class (Class of '50 this year) will be honor class at homecoming and a section of the football stands will be reserved for alumni to sit in a group. Each class is planning a class reception before the game, and in addition, each former class will be working with present school clubs to coordinate all the activities.

Cunningham should be contacted for more information. Classes not represented at the Monday meeting will be able to coordinate their plans through him in order that they might participate.

The class of '48 and '49 will be in charge of the dance which follows the football game. Chairmen appointed for each year's class are as follows:

1948 Cunningham; 1949 Willis Warren; 1950 Mrs. Howard Woodham; 1951 Ross Winnie, 1952 Bobby Hooker; 1953 Ronnie Cameron; 1954 Lavon Boss and Doug Congleton; 1955 Walter Mosley.

Subsequent developments and more information will be available later in The Herald.

Pool Operator Asked To Resign By City Manager

City Fathers Wednesday night joined City Manager C. B. Talmadge in a tight-lipped attitude over requests from a group of citizens to learn the full story behind the city's action to seek a resignation from Tom Stewart, swimming pool operator.

Talmadge said he had received a memorandum from City Clerk Frank C. Anderson concerning alleged improper handling of city funds by Stewart, and that he had subsequently asked for Stewart's resignation. He went on to say that he felt he would probably dismiss Stewart if he didn't resign.

Stewart, a city employee under civil service, would then have the right to seek a public hearing before the Civil Service Board. Contacted by The Herald Wednesday night, Stewart said he would seek legal advice before taking any ac-

Request Your Tag Numbers For 1960

"Vehicle tags for 1960 go on sale Jan. 3 in Florida, reminds Mrs. Edwina C. Young at the tax collector's office at Glades Office Building. No tags will be issued prior to that time; however, specific tab numbers can be requested now.

Mrs. Young said several people had come into the office trying to purchase 1960 tags only to learn it couldn't be done. By paying the full price of the 1960 tag, Mrs. Young said, tag numbers can be reserved for Jan. 3 delivery.

The 1959 tags are on sale; none priced less than $5.00 for one-sixth of the year remaining. The 1960 prices will range from $5.25 to $26.25 for "T" through "WW" weight classifications.

First Glades Court Sessions Set Today At Sub Courthouse

First court session of any kind ever held in the Glades will be held today at the Palm Beach County Glades Office Building when Small Claims Court Judge F. A. Currie opens his court at 1 p. m. to hear 33 cases on the original docket of 44. Eleven were settled early.

The auditorium room has been arranged similarly to the West Palm Beach courtroom, County Commissioner Paul Rardin, Canal Point, said. Paul Sokol is bailiff.

Mrs. Mae Pope, office manager, said 123 cases had been filed through the Glades Office Building in the past six months. Many of the cases were settled out of court before a hearing or heard at West Palm Beach.

Next Glades hearing will be Nov. 30, and cases must be filed no later than the afternoon of Nov. 6, Mrs. Pope said.

A recently authorized $40,000 addition to the building will provide courtroom space for the small claims hearings sometime next year. The auditorium will be used until facilities are completed.

Miss Martha Procter, clerk of Judge Currie's West Palm Beach office, will be on hand for the first sessions here.

The accomplishment of a court session in the Glades was brought about through state leg-

Airport Road Due One-Mile Extension As Duda Link Waits

Tentative plans have been made for extending Airport Road at Belle Glade another mile east from its present terminus seven miles east of SR 15, according to County Commissioner Paul Rardin who said this week that plans call for the right-of-way to be given by Sam N. Knight.

The present road was built by the county and completed with muck shoulders and grass only a few months ago, Rardin said. It is hard surfaced.

Rardin said this week that no new developments were available concerning the Duda Road extension which will link SR 80 and Airport Road. The work, already authorized, has not been started due to right-of-way negotiations by the county.

Airport Road leads into one of the finest farming areas on the shore of Lake Okeechobee and an additional mile will put much more acreage on a hard

Lake Shore Co-op Expands Services To Growing Areas

President Ray Roth at Lake Shore Growers Co-op announces that John Dulaney, formerly general manager, has been named manager of the newly opened Pompano office, and Frank Dutton, formerly of the sales force, will hold the same position at the Immokalee office, according to a recent decision of the board of directors.

General Manager J. W. Altman says, "Grower-members have operations in both places of sufficient volume to necessitate our giving them the service of an organization at both points.

"Then, too, we know that our specialty of mixed carlots will be much better served with an organization in the field where specialty items must be secured in order to serve our customers."

A recent meeting of the board of directors named Hagan Powell as secretary and W. W. Weeks as treasurer, along with the above named officials.

Altman, as sales manager will have as his local assistants Ed Logan and Ernie Matthews.

In reviewing the past year's operation, Altman points out that more than two and one-half million packages were handled through the organization for a total dollar volume of a bit more than $4,350,000.

In view of the expanded operation and the addition of some farmers, it is expected that the 1959-60 season will see a substantial increase in total tonnage handled.

Diana Shops Opens New Store Today

DIANA SHOPS MANAGER Miss Anna Ruth Brown (left) is seen chatting with Miss M. Newsome, district supervisor for Diana Shops in this area, as they prepared to open their modern lady's apparel shop today. This store is the second major chain store to open here this fall. The Belle Glade outlet is one of 300 Diana Shops now operatnig.

"A store specifically planned to make shopping easier and more delightful," says Miss Anna Ruth Brown who will manage the new Diana Shop which will open Oct. 29 at 217 W. Ave. A, Belle Glade. This opening will mark the latest addition in the nationwide chain of more than 300 Diana fashion stores throughout the country.

In addition to Miss Brown the store staff will be composed solely of residents of Belle Glade and the surrounding area. The recruiting of local residents to run its stores is one of the first major policies of the Diana Shops Company who maintain headquarters in New York.

"It's a big store, that will concentrate on extensive fashion assortments and selections, claims Miss M. Newsome District Supervisor for stores in this area.

The interior is enhanced by walls of moss green and harmonizing wall-paper designed expressly and exclusively for the Diana Stores. Attractive well-lighted display niches further add to the modern design. Fixtures were designed and fabricated in the company's own shops in Greensboro, N. C., and assembled on the premises by local craftsmen.

An additional feature is the 14 modern appointed fitting rooms which are also carpeted. The entire 30 x 167 store is competely air-conditioned. Windows and lobby have received new, modern lighting treatment, and this together with the installation of clear glass doors lends a large expensive air to the store front. The three attractively trimmed windows feature sliding doors permitting an un-obstructed view of the interior from the outside. The non-skid terrazzb lobby is an attractive mixture of colorful marble. A brilliant red two line sign denoting the store name is affixed on an imposing high, contemporary designed facade.

The new Diana Shop carries a complete line of misses and women's dresses, coats, suits, sportswear, beachwear and lingerie. A special section devoted to a complete children's wear department will be featured. Exclusive hosiery manufactured in the company's own mill will also be stocked.

Thirty feet of frontage divided into three windows feature the latest in modern lighting fixtures and displays equipment.

"Here's the store whose windows will sell the established Diana policy of finer fashions for lower prices," claim Mr. S. Palen Display Supervisor of this territory.

In addition to souvenirs, drawings for prizes and gifts for children, the entire store is celebrating it's opening with special values in every department.

First Celery Is Harvested As Glades Area Recovers

South Bay Growers, Inc., cut approximately 1,200 crates of celery Monday to become the first celery growers in the state to bring the crop to market. It was another sign that the Glades was jumping back into vegetable harvesting activities following recent rains which caused serious damage in some areas.

A spokesman for South Bay Growers said the Oct. 26 cutting date was the earliest in the firm's history. The pascal variety was for Florida distribution only, and it was estimated that the first shipments out of the state would occur about Nov. 15.

Reurns ranged between three and four dollars per crate, depending on size. Other Belle Glade and Pahokee celery growers didn't expect to get their first offerings on the market before Nov. 15..

Crop Damage

Early estimates of damage to the vegetable harvest in the Glades area following the recent heavy rains show bean and corn acreage took most of the damage.

Bean quality was lowered, but there are some beans around. Some guesses say about one-third of the sweet corn in the Glades was hurt; however, the abundance of that crop before the storms would have meant lower prices at the markets.

Carloadings

Vegetables moving to market by rail carlots are nearly doubled over last year, according to Commercial Agent R. E. Hotard. Shipments this week totaled 174 and were 89 for the same period last year.

Okeelanta Starts 1000 Employees On Harvest

With prospects for a high tonnage yield from the 59-60 crop, Okeelanta Sugar Refinery commences burning and cutting sugar cane Friday. The mill is scheduled to commence fabricating sugar on Monday, November 2nd, with a total of 1000 employees in mill and field.

Of the approximately 800 field hands near 600 are offshore workers under contract.

Quotas on acreage harvested have been removed by the Sugar Section USDA, but increased quotas for selling have not been increased. So, whatever excess over selling quota is harvested during the 59-60 season is subject to the whims of our Dear Uncle's Sugar Section.

Jury Rules "No" In Shooting Case

A coroner's jury ruled justifiable homicide Tuesday night in the case of a South Bay liquor store operator who fatally wounded a Negro Oct. 17, according to Peace Justice Mrs. Aleese Cherry, who conducted the inquest.

County Solicitor Joel Daves assisted Mrs. Cherry and questioned subjects and witnesses in the incident. According to Constable Ralph Kirk, Eligi I. Scott, the store operator, shot Arthur Brown, 36, Oct. 17 outside Scott's store in the Negro section of South Bay when Brown pointed a loaded 38 pistol at him.

The shooting occurred after Brown attempted to molest Scott's wife; Irene. Jury Foreman W. G. Bowen returned the justifiable ruling after a short deliberation with his jury panel, H. H. Walker, H. B. Walker, John M. McCurdy, W. P. Blackwell and J. H. Harrell.

"Grand Old Man" Of Hybrid Corn Honored By Seed Trade Publication

(Editor's Note) Following is a reprint of an article which appeared in th eSeptember 30 issue of "Seed Trade News" concerning Glenn Smith. who is now living at Belle Glade.

In 1945, Glenn M. Smith, noted Purdue scientist, agronomist and plant breeder, was awarded a plaque for his outstanding contributions to horticulture by all-America Selections -- American Seed Trade Ass'n.

More than 20 years earlier, Smith began experimenting with tw strains of Golden Bantam sweet corn and by imbreeding and cross breeding, he perfected the resistant strain. For 26 years the familiar Golden Cross Bantam led the hybrid sweet corn production list.

Today 24 million pounds of this seed are grown in America alone with thousands of acres similarly planted in countries elsewhere around the globe.

Other varieties listed among Smith's contributions are Golden Harvest, Hoosier Gold, Purgold, and Improved Golden Cross Bantam.

Glenn Smith has been honored by the Popcorn Processors Ass'n for his work in bettering hybrid popcorn seed. The Florida Seedsman's Ass'n awarded him a Distinguished Service Citation for his work on hybrid sweet corn.

A statehent in connection with his awards said that "he has reached a place in the agricultural hall of fame that no one in his field will probably approach."

Glenn M. Smith

Yet many persons believe Smith's recognition has fallen short of that warranted by his actual contribution. Outside of the seed industry the name of Glenn Smith is relatively unknown.

W. L. Crookham of the Crookham Co., of Caldwell, Idaho, calls Glenn Smith the "Grand Old Man and the corn-breeder's cornbreeder."

Despite his 67 years, Smith is in good shape. He is continuing his corn work in Belle Glade, Florida, for private concerns.

Pollen, dust, and sharp-edged corn leaves are as much as part of his daily life as ever.

Seek Jet-Age Port For Glades Area

County Commissioner Paul Rardin is convinced the jet air age will bring new development in the Glades and this week ask the county commission to start now to get ready for the change.

Rardin asked the commission to ask the State Internal Improvement Board to turn over about 60 acres of state land next to the Pahokee airport and to also ask for control of two sections of land across the road from the airport.

The Glades commissioner envisioned the day in the near future when jet fighters would be used to fly vegetables to market. When the day comes, he said, the 60 acres will be needed to lengthen airport runways.

The two sections of land, Rardin said, will be needed for an industrial area adjacent to the airport. The land would be sites for precooling plans, packing houses and shipping depots.

The commission agreed to seek control of the two parcels of land.

Rardin also pushed for aid from another state quarters, winning permission of the board to seek help from the State Road Department for construction of a road side park on State Road 715 between Belle Glade and Pahokee.

Interest in Florida's oil potential is being revived with new drilling slated to start in the Keys by Gulf Oil Co. and new leases granted to two other oil seekers.

THERE'S NO MATCH FOR ELECTRIC LIVING

In Florida, MODERN means ELECTRIC! No rural kitchen-laundry is complete without an Electric Range and an Automatic Electric Water Heater.

It's cheaper to go all-electric in your kitchen-laundry than to use a combination of services. It's cleaner, cooler, safer, too.

Let Reddy help in your home as he does on the farm . . . and put more joy in your life.

Rainbow Girls To Stage 2nd Annual Football Classic

Rainbow Girls here are getting ready for their second annual "Powder Puff" football classic which will be staged at Belle Glade Memorial Football field Dec. 4. They will face the Pahokee Rainbow Girls in a touch football game the proceeds to be used for a charitable purpose in the community.

In last year's game played at Lair Field, Pahokee, football fans from the lake area turned out to see a spectacular game, the score was 0-0. The benefit performance proceeds went to the Tripp Alderman Fund, which purchased rehabilitation equipment for Alderman, an injured football star, who was hurt in an accident on the eve of the 1958 grid season.

Linda Rhymes, in charge of organizing the event this year, said practice will get underway next week. The team will be coached by three football stars on the Rams team, chosen by Coach Maynor.

The girls are all enthused about the game. There will be a number of new girls on the squad and a captain will be elected at an organizational meeting this week. Jeanie Crichfield is on a committee, to decide a worthwhile project for which the proceeds are to be used.

Last year's game was a huge success and this year the girls plan to make it even more interesting. Over $250 was realized last year and about 500 fans turned out to see a well-played and thrilling game.

The entrance fee will be 50 cents, the same as last year. The girls will put in some hard practice from now until the game. More about the team and about their opponements will be in a later issue.

Girls Wanted To Join Second Grade Brownies

Any girls in the second grade wishing to join the Brownies and have not registered may call Mrs. Reginald Lewis, Girl Scout troop organizer at WY 6-3779 as there is a possibility that if enough girls register for this group another troop could be organized. Girls or their mother or asked to please call before Nov. 7.

Any adults interested in helping in this worthwhile work with the scouts may also call this number.

Special Dance

Beginning at 9 p. m. the "Rhythm Rockers" will be playing rock-n-roll in the school auditorium. Admission is 75 cents for junior and senior high students. Real crazy until 11:45.

Many Thanks

Just about everyone is pitching in to help raise funds for PTA projects through the year. All proceeds provide money for the benefit of school children, so anything you spend comes back to you with interest through your youngsters.

The PTA planning committee wishes to express their gratitude for the overwhelming acceptance of their event by merchants, individuals, packing houses and growers for their donations and support.

Special Credit

To those unthanked and unsung heroes and heroines of the PTA planning committee, their other members and the school officials, goes the credit for creating such an event for the pure pleasure of youngsters of all ages (one to one hundred) this year. The Herald will gather all the loose ends and list as near as possible the many workers and committee members in our next issue.

From the parade with the costumes and weird painted faces to the full tummies and screaming delight of the carnival to the jumping feet and shattered decorum of the rock-n-roll dance, it'll be a ball, and you'd better not miss it, either.

National P.T.A. Sets Goal: Over 12,000,000 Members

More American children than ever before are enrolled in school this fall.

And more and more of their parents and teachers will be P.T.A. members by the time the National Congress of Parents and Teachers concludes its annual October membership enrollment.

Through the efforts of the millions of parents and teachers already working in P.T.A.'s, children all over the United States are assured the closest kind of home-school cooperation on their behalf. Out of this working together of home and school have come higher educational standards, curriculums geared to the needs of today's world, more adequate school facilities and more effective parent education programs and, of course, good playgrounds, safe sidewalks, driver-training classes, and continuous health programs.

Mrs. James C. Parker, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, president of the National Congress, points to such P.T.A. achievements as "a significant factor" in the growth of the National Congress, which already ranks as the world's largest voluntary organization.

"A membership of more than 12,000,000 is our goal this year," she says, "and we intend to call on all the families we can to enroll new members — whether parents or teachers or other citizens with a real interest in children."

Work for All

The variety of P.T.A. activities, Mrs. Parker believes, "offers all members an opportunity to work on the many problems that involve the welfare and advancement of the nation's children."

Because the P.T.A.'s chief concern is for children, its action on their behalf starts even before they're ready for school.

—A pre-school program emphasizes the child's health, his safety, and his sound emotional development. It may take the form of an immunization project like that undertaken in Tennessee's Washington County, where children started to school this fall protected against diphtheria, smallpox, whooping cough, and polio—because P.T.A. members took the lead in a countywide fight against communicable disease.

—When a child takes the big step into school, the P.T.A. offers a ready-made meeting place where parents and teachers work together for the child's academic and social development. The Kenosha, Wisconsin, Council of P.T.A.'s, for example, sponsored a summer-long elementary school clinic for children who had difficulty in reading.

—Youngsters who have special problems get attention in another phase of the National Congress' program. Language barriers are being breached for Puerto Rican children attending school in Camden, New Jersey, because local P.T.A.'s sparked a move to hire a Spanish instructor who works with these children in their daily English classes.

Teens Get Attention

—Teen-agers are helped, too, by P.T.A. programs designed to spur their development into responsible citizens. In Evanston, Illinois, high school students can look forward to receiving sound advice on future vocations, thanks to a P.T.A. guidance program that culminates in a day-long career conference.

—Because of its interest in children, the P.T.A. also offers adults many chances for constructive community work that will benefit children.

Through the years, the National Congress consistently supported kindergartens, promoted hot lunch programs in schools, alerted the public to violations of child labor statutes, improved the standards of treatment for juvenile offenders, and backed programs to focus attention on the urgent needs of the public schools.

"The more members we enroll," Mrs. Parker points out, "the more opportunities the National Congress will have to work for the well-being of all the nation's children."

Standing beside the P.T.A. oak tree emblem, Mrs. James C. Parker, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, prepares to sow symbolic acorns in an effort to reach the goal of more than twelve million P.T.A. memberships. She urges P.T.A. members to "call on all" during membership enrollment month.

Vegetable Crop Guides Are Released By Extension Service Outlook Group

Production of more watermelons and less celery is suggested for Florida growers by the Florida Agricultural Extension Service Outlook Committee.

The Vegetable Outlook and Acreage Marketing Guide for 1959-60 is based on information on acres planted last season compared with the five-year average, prices received, and suggestions for the coming season.

Record prices for watermelons have been received for most of this year's production, but prices toward the end of the season were unsatisfactory. The committee says several factors contributed to the good prices.

Due to the low prices of 1957-58, and the wet spring of 1959, planted acreage was severely curtailed from that of the previous season, 78,000 acres as compared to 100,000.

Loss of acreage from cold and wet weather further reduced this acreage to 75,000 for harvesting. Heavy rain resulted in excessive leaching of plant nutrients and in many instances the size of melons was seriously reduced.

The committee feels more melons could be marketed than were sold this season. A production of 7,200,000 hundred weights of good quality melons could probably be marketed at satisfactory prices if distribution of harvesting were as well spaced as this past year. There was little competition between production areas within the state. South Florida crops matured well ahead of central and north Florida.

This suggested production would be below the average 7,663,000 hundred weights produced from 1952-53 to 1956-57, but approximately the same as the average marketed during this period.

To produce the indicated number would require planting 92,300 acres, assuming average yields and normal loss of acreage occurred. This would compare with 99,400 acres, the average planted from 1952-53 to 1956-57.

The Florida celery situation is just the opposite, according to the committee. A production of 4,528,000 hundred weights, the largest crop ever produced, met with poor prices throughout the season.

A reduction to 3,850,000 hundred weights, produced with good scheduling of planting and good quality should bring satisfactory prices. This amount should be produced on about 9,800 acres, compared to 13,000 acres plantings to about 5,800 acres and about 3,950 acres in the spring.

Other Florida crops covered in the current report include lima beans, cantaloupes, cabbage, cauliflower, cucumbers, potatoes, strawberries, tomatoes, sweet corn, eggplant, endive, escarole, peppers, squash, green beans, and lettuce.

The committee urges Florida growers to make every effort to adjust acreage of various crops to meet only prospective demand. Growers should select crops that provide the best opportunity for producing top quality.

With employment at record levels, it appears consumers will have purchasing power equal to, or greater, than last year. The committee anticipates the demand for fresh vegetables will be at least as great as last year. Consumers may be expected to continue to exercise judgement in selecting vegetables and to prefer quality produce.

According to Deputy Sheriff Bobby Newman, Gaines shot Pitts in the hand and the bullet glanced into his chin and lodged in his throat, but Pitts was apparently not seriously injured. Newman said the shooting took place during an argument.

Bobcats Wreck Pahokee 52-0

Lake Shore High School's Bobcats took advantage of a green East Lake Hawk squad Friday night to run up their highest winning score of this season with a 52-0 romp over the Pahokee players.

Holding the Pahokee team inside their own territory all night, the Bobcats scored each time they got possession of the ball after the first few plays.

Two 15-yard penalties forced the Bobcats to give up the ball deep in Hawk territory, but after that, the Hawks didn't have a chance. They played well, but the Bobcat know-how showed through.

Willie McDonald scored three times, Richard Vickers and reserve Halfback Hezehiah Jackson each scored two touchdowns. George Golden scored one. McDonald ran two extra points, Larry Glover and Golden got one extra point apiece.

The victory was the third greatest margin of victory in Lake Shore history and the third win against three losses this season. The game was the second loss for East Lake with no victories in their first year of interscholastic football play.

The Bobcats face Carver of Delray on the coast Oct. 29. This conference tilt may be a rough one for the 'Cats since the Carver team is sharper than last year, it was reported.

Florida's growing poultry industry now produces about 5% of the state's total farm market sales.

Airport Road Due

road leading to the packing house area, Rardin said.

Ice Plant Road (NW Avenue "L") in Belle Glade was recently retreaded with asphaltic concrete by Palm Beach County, according to Rardin under whose direction the work was done.

Rubin Construction Company, of West Palm Beach, was low bidder on the job and completed the work last week. Ice Plant Road is the western extension of Airport Road and is also known as Osceola Camp Road.

Rardin said that county road crews have completed the job of rebuilding the shoulders on the road following the retread work. Before the black top retread was put on county crews widened the road three feet from the ice plant west to SR 715 in Chosen.

Now that the entire busy stretch of road is in excellent condition it is carrying heavy traffic to and from the packing house area, Rardin pointed out.

The Navy's Military Sea Transportation Service was activated on Oct. 1, 1949, thereby combining the services of both Army and Navy transports ferrying troops and supplies throughout the world.

CONFIDENTIAL: That's the keynote of a county survey which will be launched Nov. 1 as a cancer prevention study. Mrs. C. C. PBC Flood Survey Being Completed

A check of Palm Beach County's water levels during flood periods is being completed by the county's engineering department in hopes the survey will point up steps to be taken to prevent high water - particularly in residential sub divisions.

The county commission this week, in a report from County Engineer Steve Middleton, heard that readings had been taken around the clock during recent heavy rains and that this information together with data gathered from other sources, will be used in the survey.

In another action concerning high water, the commission voted to ask the Central and South Florida Flood Control board to join the county in a study of drainage conditions.

Commission Chairman Lake Lytal said he believed the FCD owed it to the citizens of the county to join in the survey. He said the flood control group is in charge of the West Palm Beach Canal which controls run-off from the lowlands hard hit by floods.

The commission agreed it would ask the FCD to study the possibility of increasing the run off potential of the canal during flood periods.

In still another action concerning drainage, the board authorized its engineer to confer with officials of Westward Development in an effort to work out a system to control high waters in the area which the developers are filling in for home construction. The study is also to include determining location of canals so when State Road 9 is build, provisions can be made to bridge the water controls.

Asked by citizens what would become of the recreation program at the pools, Talmadge said other directors would be interviewed and another director subsequently hired. Stewart was hired Apr. 14 at $400 per month.

"This was not an economy move," Talmadge pointed out.

Sewerage Rates

Upon the request of J. B. Jones ,real estate agent, the council agreed to write to contact they city's fiscal agent who handled the sewer bond issue to learn if rates could be adjusted.

Jones called the sewerage rates inequitable to small apartments and said that the high rates were causing rent hikes which tennants couldn't afford.

The council recognized that some adjustment for certain cases would be necessary from time to time; however, they declined specific action until more information is available from B. J. Vanlngen Co., the fiscal agent.

Appointments

Several commission, committee and board appointments were made which included Jack Gorham reappointed to the golf commission for a two-year term; Milton Burry and H. V. Heard that the 12 applicants for the Director of Public Works position had been narrowed to four and that more information had been requeseld on the four prior to interviewing them.

It Is Unlawful For Any Person Or Persons To Engage In Business Under A Business Name Unless The Name Is Registered

The law reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, as defined herein, to engage in business as herein defined, under a fictitious name as herein defined, without and unless said fictitious name shall be registered with the clerk of the circuit court of the county where the principal place of business is, which registration shall consist of filing with the clerk aforesaid an affidavit signed by all interested persons, stating under oath the names of all those interested in the business enterprise, the extent of the interest of each, and the fictitious name under which said business is carried on. Said registration may not be made until the person or persons desiring to engage in business under a fictitious name shall have advertised his or their intention to register said fictitious name at least once a week for four (4) consecutive weeks in some newspaper as defined by law in the county where said registration is to be made, and said registration shall not be accepted by the clerk of the circuit court except upon receiving proof of such publication."

As interpreted by attorneys, a person may engage in business under his own name, (such as JOHN JONES), but if he uses any business name, (even such as JOHN JONES' FISH MARKET) he is required to register the name with the clerk of the circuit court in his county, and to advertise the name and ownership of his business.

Blood Bank Representatives Meet Tonight For First Organization

Representatives of Belle Glade civic and fraternal organization will meeting tonight in Everglades American Legion Post 20 for the purpose of coordinating efforts for a blood donor day, Nov. 17, to create an associate account at Belle Glade Memorial Hospital under the auspices of the Palm Beach County Blood Bank.

The 8 p. m. meeting will be for the purpose of issuing literature about blood donations and clearing up questions about the drive to obtain 75 pints of blood to create the associate bank for the use of the community.

Questions Arise

Typical questions arise at this time concerning how the bank functions and who may participate. Purpose of this article will be to answer some of the questions about the bank and about blood itself.

Banking Procedure

Functioning as a commercial bank, Belle Glade's account will be credited with 75 pints (if they're donated) by the Palm Beach bank. Blood taken here is taken to West Palm Beach for processing, and a supply is sent to us.

Blood will be stored under National Institute of Health standards and new equipment will be supplied by hospital for this purpose. Donors can build up their individuals accounts by giving a pint of blood now and then. When blood is needed by that individual, he or she would draw on his own account as one does a checking account.

A savings up to $100 can be effected by this procedure. The credit at a blood bank is nationwide. If the need should arise, one could be given a transfusion in a California hospital and "charged" to the local account.

Blood not used locally within a specified time is returned to West Palm Beach and used or destroyed with credit given locally and new blood sent to replace the old blood.

Critically Needed

When blood is needed, it's needed fast, Belle Glade Memorial Hospital spokesmen point out. Seventy-five percent of the blood used is for emergency cases. If blood were not "stockpiled" in the associate bank, a time-consuming call for donors would be necesary.

Everglades American Legion Post 20 blook bank committee officials, those who are spearheading the community effort, urge the general public to take part in this vitally needed project.

"Don't forget "B Day" is Nov. 17," they said.

Noted Cardiologist Is Slated For Glades Talk

Dr. S. D. Rotter, director of the cardiac clinic and chief of staff at Good Samaritan Hospital, will appear at a special educational meeting on heart care at Belle Glade High School cafetorium Nov. 20 at 8 p. m., according to Mrs. Guy Wood, Glades secretary of the Palm Beach-Martin County Heart Assn.

The noted cardiologist will present information of value on the care of heart patients and emergency heart care for the general public, Mrs. Wood said.

Attend Short School For Water-Sewer Men

Belle Glade water and sewer department officials are attending sessions of the District 5B regional short school for Florida Water and Sewerage Works Operators Assn., at Palm Beach Junior College, according to Joe Woolf, general chairman.

Two sessions have already been held Oct. 23 and 27 with other classes set for tonight as well as Nov. 3, 5 and 6. Attending are operators from Broward, Martin, Palm Beach and Hendry Counties in addition to operators from Vero Beach and the Cocoa area. Woolf is assisted by Clarence Throop, Co-chairman from Belle Glade.

Others attending from Belle Glade are James Moon, sewage treatment plant operator, and Ottis Lawson and James Motes from the water treatment plant.

RUSSELL BURRY is a Belle Glade High football player with plenty of go-power. He's been a defensive stand-out all season long with his effective tackles when it counts most.

Ft. Myers Wins 12-0 From Rams

Against the big Green Wave from Ft. Myers, Belle Glade High School's Rams came up with more of their outstanding defensive play and held the visitors to 12 points as the Rams lost their second game in a row without scoring a point. It was their fifth straight loss against one win for the season.

Ft. Myers, usually stronger on offense made their third win against three losses. Twice they stopped the Rams scant feet from a score and their best efforts failed to stop Ram backs from rolling up big gains.

How a team can get inside a foe's four-yard-line twice with a first-and-goal each time and not score was the question when the game ended.

After two Ram drives bogged down in the first quarter, they kicked to the Ft. Myers five. Two plays later big George D'Alessandro broke through for a 72-yard run only to be tackled at the Ram 15. He fumbled and the Rams took over! however, on the first play a pitchout was fumbled and Ft. Myers had the ball on the Ram 11. A drive by D'Alessandro and two by Halfback Ray Lamp scored for Ft. Myers.

The visitors scored again just after the third quarter began with a 60-yard drive, 40 yards of it on one run by Lamp.

The Rams had a drive stopped at the one-foot line as the half ended. Earlier the Rams moved from their own 20 to the Ft. Myers four in a drive that featured a 42-yard run by Claude Robertson. They were stopped at the one.

The Green Wave rolled up 12 first downs and 250 net yards rushing to six first downs and 138 yards for the losers.

Defensive action by Gary Norman was again outstanding for the Rams. Ram kicks sailed for good yardage and proved another effective defensive weapon.

Research Results Heard At Miami By Horticulturists

More than 100 papers dealing with research results with citrus, vegetables, ornamentals, processing, and minor fruits was presented at the 72nd annual meeting of the Florida State Horticultural Society in Miami, October 27-29.

Dr. E. L. Spencer, chemist in charge of the Gulf Coast Experiment Station at Bradenton and secretary of the society, said a general session was set for Wednesday morning, October 28, and a banquet that evening. The five sectional programs occupied Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and Thursday morning.

Staff members of Everglades Experiment Station who were attending the meeting include E. A. Wolf, Dr. V. L. Guzman, Dr. E. D. Harris, Jr., Dr. H. W. Burdine, Dr. C. C. Hortenstine, Dr. J. R. Orsenigo, Dr. W. T. Forsee, Jr., Dr. J. N. Simons, Dr. P. L. Thayer, and W. G. Genung.

Papers presented before the vegetable section include:

Subterranean Cutworm Control, by Genung; Control of Leafminer on Potatoes, by Harris; Aphid-borne Viruses, by Simons; Blight Control in Celery, by D. S. Harrison and Thayer; Growth and Yield of Three Celery Varieties, by Burdine and Guzman.

State Senator Tom Adams of Orange Park made the principal banquet address.

Workers representing the University of Florida Agricultural Experiment Stations and Extension Service, the U. S. Department of Agriculture, processing firms, organizations and manufacturers delivered most of the papers before the sectional meetings.

S. John Lynch, Osprey, is president of the society. Section vice-presidents include: Dr. Donald K. Richardson; Processing, W. Clifford Scott, Ornamental, Phillip J. Fleming; Krome Memorial (minor fruits) T. W. Young; vegetable, Wm. P. Hunter.

Plans Approved For South Bay School Addition

Preliminary plans for a two-classroom addition at South Bay School were approved by the Palm Beach County School Board at their Oct. 21 meeting, according to Howell Watkins, Superintendent of Public Schools.

The board learned that the estimated cost of the building addition would be $26,000. Design architect C. A. Cone, Belle Glade, also presented a preliminary sketch of a portable one-classroom addition for Everglades Labor Camp School, Pahokee.

Board member Henry Eyrwood, Belle Glade, said the cost of the building was between $5,600 and $5,800, and would be somewhat contingent upon the amount of the bids received on the South Bay School addition.

In other action the board:

Authorized the second floor passageway at Belle Glade High School resurfaced by Horsey-Set Distributors of Florida, Inc., at a cost of $925, provided a written five-year guarantee is furnished.

Granted an extension of 10 days in performance time to Roemer Construction Co., contractors for the installation of septic tank and absorption bed at East Lake School, Pahokee, due to weather conditions.

Ordered an inspection of the auditorium-gymnasium at Belle Glade High School by Jack Wilson as the roof may need repairs.

Ram "Bees" Edge Lake Worth 7-0

With three more games left on their schedule the Belle Glade High School "B" team is looking forward to a successful year following last Thursday night's electrifying 7-0 win over Lake Worth's B squad.

The undefeated, once-tied Ramlings put on a creditable show and repeatedly kept Lake Worth from breaking loose to score. Lake Worth moved to the Ram three for a first down and goal-to-go situation.

After the series was over, the Rams had slammed the Trojan junior squad into a fourtn-and-fifteen problem, and no penalties were involved.

The game-winning score came about when Quarterback Diddy Mills tossed 35 yards to Richard LeFils, who scampered ten more yards with only 20 seconds left in the ball game.

Coached by Therrell Luke and Luke Thornton, the B team plays at Immokalee Oct. 30 and then plays host to Stuart Nov. 3 before finishing Nov. 10 at Clewiston.

The squad already holds a 19-0 verdict over Stuart and a 14-6 win over the Clewiston Tiger B team. Only mark on their perfect record is a 7-7 tie with Ft. Pierce.

Register Your Opinion

November 3 places the little man on the street in his accustomed important role as a voter when he must decide for or against the reapportionment of the Florida Legislature.

Whether the voter shuns the idea of more representatives and senators and holds out for what has been termed a more equitable situation for certain areas, one thing is true to this election. The voting public must express itself one way or the other.

Voting—privilege though it is—is also a duty and a necessity under a democracy. Without the voice of the man-in-the-street, governments become ineffective to administer to the wants and needs of individuals.

By voting this time—and every time the chance occurs—the individual retains a voice in the government.

This newspaper has joined with other news media in the state to bring what it considers an objective report of the pros and cons of this amendment to the Florida Constitution. Read and listen, become informed; then vote your opinion.

Important Blood Bank Notes

As this community takes steps to create an associate blood bank under the supervision of the Palm Beach County Blood Bank, numerous misconceptions about the blood bank have arisen in Belle Glade. Lots of folks don't know enough about this remarkable fluid that keeps us going.

Blood is the only biological product used in medicine that cannot be produced or synthesized in any manner. Blood is divided into types which are determined by certain antibodies in the blood stream and red blood cells.

A normal person has 15 pints in his system and can donate blood usually after an eight-week interval. Since January, Belle Glade hospital has used enough blood to supply four normal-sized adults, or about 60 pints.

Forty-seven percent of all people have type 0 blood; 43 percent type A; 7 percent B; and 3 percent type AB. Blood is further classified by factor, plus or minus and is known as the Rh factor.

Character traits are not transmitted through the blood; however, the bank stores blood not only according to type but by race, although biologically, there is no difference. There can be no genetic transformations via blood donations since blood is constantly being used up, modified and eliminated by the system.

Anyone 21-60 can donate blood under certain conditions which will be explained through literature dissemination and at the blood collection point Nov. 17. Persons under 21 must have parental consent to donate.

If you're healthy, free from infectious diseases, and have the proper blood pressure, among other things ,there's no reason why you can't help start the Belle Glade Blood Bank.

Uncle Dan From Democrat River Says

Dear Mister Editor:

I see by the papers where the high level politicians is gitting in gear fer the 1960 elections. The Republicians is bragging about prosperity and the Democrats is predicting a panic. All I know fer shore is that if we ever have another panic in this country, it'll be televised.

And I see where a big insurance company has come out with a list showing how car drivers stand. Workers fer wholesole firms git first place fer being good and careful drivers, farmers and ranchers rank fourth, teachers sixth, and high school students is at the bottom of the list, in 72nd place, the worst drivers on the road. That adds up, Mister Editor. If Johnny can learn to read without learning to spell, I reckon he figgers he can drive without looking where he's going.

But I ain't blaming the schools fer all this juvenile delinquency. It got a head start the day the woodshed was replaced by the garage. There's a old saying that he that givets to a pig when it grunts and to a child when it hollers will end up having a fat pig and a unruly child. Too many parents use the giveth plan.

I brung up the topic at the country store Saturday night but all the fellers was busy talking about fishing and said juvenile delinquency would have to wait. I ain't critisinz 'em none fer it. Fishing does a feller a heap of good and most of the time it don't do the fish no harm.

I heard a Civil Defense feller talking on the radio the other night and I'm writing my Congressman about his speech. He said in case a city is bombed city folks should pack up and go stay with their kinfolks in the country. It has took us country folks 20 year to git our city kin out of the habit of swarming down on us ever Sunday and eating us out of house and home. We got it done by leaving home on Sunday, putting up "Smallpox" signs all over the place, and blocking the road with rocks and tree limbs. And now this Defense feller comes along and undoes 20 year of hard work. It's important to git this feller off the air, and fast.

Our preacher talked Sunday on "family relations." He said a husband ought never start a argument with his wife when she's tired. I shore ain't starting one with mine when she's rested.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

Watch Out For Poles During Hunting Season

"Now that hunting season is underway, you are asked to be careful to avoid hitting a telephone wire or pole."

This request is made by Zeke O'Farrell ,Group Manager for Southern Bell Telephone Co. here in the Glades. There have been instances of damage to telephone equipment in the Glades which prompted this request, O'Farrell pointed out.

If a shot penetrates a cable or breaks an insulator, a telephone can be put out of order thereby causing someone to miss his calls.

Legion Dues Now Being Accepted By Your Post

American Legion Posts in the Glades have joined with other posts throughout the Nation in their annual membership drive. The 1960 dues are payable now.

Commander R. O. Plank, Lake Harbor and Mrs. Margie Henderson, Auxiliary President of Post and unit 161 at South Bay issued the call this week.

Acting Commander George Pierce of Everglades Post 20 joined with Mrs. Hubert Swain, Unit 20 Auxiliary President, in announcing that dues were also being accepted at this time from their organizations.

Florida's Commissioner of Agriculture, Nathan Mayo, took office in 1923 when his department had a budget of $65,000. Now, his department has an annual budget of about $6,000,000.

Digest Article Hits RR Hex

A showdown between management and labor over the $500 million annual featherbedding waste on the nation's railroads is imminent, Reader's Digest reports in an article in the November issue.

U. S. railroads are determined to modernize the work rules dating from 40 and more years ago, according to the article by Alfred Steinberg. These rules require surplus men on trains, erect jurisdictional barriers between various work groups and otherwise promote waste and inefficiency among 200,000 operating employees, the article points out.

Contract negotiations on this explosive issue begin after Nov. 15.

"There can be no question that featherbedding abounds wherever one looks," Steinberg declares.

The toll, he adds, is measured in higher passenger fares and freight rates and dwindling business for the long-troubled railroad industry.

As an example Steinberg says a feather bed rule splits the nation's railroads into divisions 100 or so miles long, with crews barred from crossing these borders. Thus, eight different engine crews are required to get the 20th Century limited over the 16-hour course between New York City and Chicago.

Handy on Halloween

By BETTY BARCLAY

For the Halloween season or for any time during the year when something really tasty is desired, try the following:

Crackle Cookies

1¾ cup sifted flour
¼ teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening
¾ cup sugar
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup Fortified Chocolate Flavored Syrup

Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Cream shortening. Gradually beat in sugar. Blend in egg and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with Chocolate Flavored Syrup, mixing well after each addition. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased cooky sheet. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.), 12 to 15 minutes. Makes about 3½ dozen cookies. Press cookies with fork before baking to make a crisper cooky.

Fudge Oatmeal Cookies

(Makes about 26 cookies—1½ inches in diameter)

1 15-oz. can Eagle Brand sweetened condensed milk
2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 cup quick-cooking oats
½ cup chopped nut meats

Place sweetened condensed milk and chocolate in top of double boiler. Cook over rapidly boiling water, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and no longer runs from spoon, about 5 to 8 minutes. Remove from heat. Stir in vanilla, blend in oats and nut meats. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) about 10 minutes or until firm. Remove from baking sheet immediately.

Your Library

"The farther backward you can look" said Sir Winston Churchill," the farther forward you are likely to see."

Books containing the experience of the centuries help most to enable us to look backward. They open great views into the future.

Thirty-one juvenile books have been added to Belle Glade Public Library according to Mrs. Bettie Harris, librarian. These are for the lower grades and more will be added as quickly as possible. The books were chosen from a list of the reading clinic connected with the University of Miami.

Two of the books popular with adults that have made the best sellers list for some time are For 2c Plain by Harry Golden also Only in America. On the lower east side of New York, where Harry Golden grew up, a large glass of seltzner cost 2c plain - for another penny the man would add syrup. What Flavor? Mr. Golden's new book provides its own flavor! The enthusiasm, cheerfulness and earnest good will delight you.

Richard Nixson by Earl Mazo is another book if they desire to know something of the man who will figure in the coming election. This book is supposed to be an unbiased portrait of Nixson.

The Young Titan by Van Wyck Mason, by one of America's finest historical novelists is a story of New England fighting the French and Indian wars. The Savage onslaught of marauding Indians, the relentless winters and the threat of French attack.

Advise and Consent by Allen Drury is a novel of politics, some readers say "A Washington Novel worthy of the name and the city."

THE CHANGING SCENE

Reapportionment

country where population shifts have occurred from a rural population to an urban one, there has been reluctance on the part of the ones who are in danger of losing strength to resist the further loss of representatives.

In our own state the Constitution of 1885 provided for a limit of 68 House seats and 32 Senate districts. There was no reapportionment until 1925 when the present formula was adopted giving the House 95 seats and creating 38 Senate district, four going to south Florida and two elsewhere.

Changes

In 1935 only token changes were made with two seats merely shifting in the House. Again in 1945 no major changes were made other than shifting three House seats and changing eight Senate districts around with two going to south Florida.

Technically, the constitution says that the legislature will reapportion every ten years with the House of Representatives being apportioned somewhat on a population basis and the Senate being divided into 38 districts as equal in population as practical.

No Chance

Bear in mind that no county can have more than one senator, so it is impossible to give too much relief to the larger counties in the Senate. The most you can do is to attempt to change some of the smaller senatorial district so that more people will be included. In this attempt, you meet resistance of the counties involved, particularly those in the multiple county districts who would be attached to other counties.

Getting the eight House seats for the larger counties represented a real victory as it practically insures the more populous counties the control of the House. It provides them with veto power and with middle-sized counties growing fast, they will tend to vote with and support the larger county's legislative needs.

No Alternative

The opponents of this amendment offer no alternative other than to wait. We have been waiting since 1955 while spending thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money in hopeless deadlock while in special sessions. This is a step forward which will put the populous areas with their increased voice in better position to get more representation. To defeat it would continue the bitter sectionalism feeling between north and south Florida which does our state no good. Florida is a state of 67 counties, and we should work together to continue our progress.

In my opinion this is a step forward and the amendment should be adopted. In 1963 the House will reapportion itself again with Lee and Brevard Counties gaining two seats from north Florida. In the Senate no redistricting will occur until 1970, if the amendment is adopted. Since no change has occurred for the last ten years, I see no reason why, if the present formula is adopted, that it makes a great difference.
